Two Antioch youths were injured and subsequently arrested following a high speed chase and accident in a stolen car on the morning of September 6.

The two: Basil A. Stefanski, 17, of 1001 Lake Street, and Thomas E. Parsons, 18, of 245 Depot Street were captured when their wild spree ended in a farmers field in rural Racine County (Wisconsin).

The episode began when Antioch patrolman, Harold Mason, stopped the car on a routine traffic check. As Mason approached the car on foot, the two sped away northbound on Route 83.

Taking up the chase, Mason shadowed the car while it careened at high speed around curves and through stop signs, often leaving the pavement and sliding on the shoulder of the road.

However, their attempted escape was thwarted when the car, driven by Stefanski, left the road, smashed through a fence and came to rest on its roof.

Following the accident, Parsons was admitted to a Racine hospital suffering from a broken leg. Charges against him are pending his release.

Stefanski was charged with numerous offenses ranging from car theft to traffic citations and later released on $5,000 bond. No court date has yet been set.

PLAN COMMISSION CLOSE TO AGREEMENT

Antioch Plan Commission members held one of their lengthier sessions on September 7 and appear closer to breaking their planning logjam than at any time in past months.

Discussion was centered on the Curnes property and the effect the 1,400 plus population project could have on the village. In addition, the group also explored the necessity for swift creation of an overall village plan of development.

"It's to the point where we have to have a plan," said chairman, Bob Bemis.

Plan Commission members have argued that too much of their time has been spent on individual projects, relegating the central plan to the background.

However, William Brook, a member of the high school board and a liaison to the Plan Commission said, "It's about time we got the work done - or quit."

County planner, Cranston Byrd, who was earlier praised by Brook for his consultant services, said the members must soon "set priorities." He also said the group should consider a moratorium on building so that they could devote more time to the central plan.

The latter part of the meeting was devoted to discussion of the current school crisis and the impact of housing projects.

At the conclusion of the meeting no recommendation was given on the Curnes project, but members appeared in agreement that a decision, one way or another, could come up at the next meeting.

In addition to the hole in one,

TRENDS DEVELOP IN SURVEY

While results are, as yet, incomplete there has been an encouraging response to the Antioch News electoral survey.

According to staff writer, John Gretz, the response was "very satisfying, considering the time element. After all," he said, "it has only had one week of media exposure."

Gretz further stated that door prizes, donated by local merchants will also be handed out.

Witek said he expected a record turnout for the one-day event and advised golfers and anyone else interested to call the country club pro shop (395-3000) or himself - Roy Witek (395-1321).

See information on page 16.

while it is "far too early" to make any realistic predictions, there are some "unmistakable trends developing."

He further urged all interested persons to fill out the survey, reminding them that they need not disclose their party affiliation by having the option to sign or not sign the form.

SURVEY

All too often the average man is not consulted when the important issues of the day are decided. Invariably he has little to say in the workings of government.

But now, the average man has recourse. Through the following questionnaire you can make your feelings known to those whom you will elect.

The aim of this survey, then is twofold. First of course to indicate the preference of voters in key races. Second, to make a sounding of the issues that are most in the minds of the electorate and possible policies to be implemented.

We encourage anyone having additional viewpoints to jot them down on a separate sheet of paper. However, you need not expose your voting preferences. Signatures are not mandatory.

RESCUE SQUAD DONORS

MEDIAN INCOME UP

The median family income of residents of the 12th District of Illinois (soon to be the 13th) is $12,000 compared to the median family income of $11,000 for residents of the State of Illinois at large. This was brought out in a Census Bureau report for the year 1970, recently released.

Other characteristics of the population of our District show that in 1970 there were 22,000 Negroes, 400 American Indians, 540 Japanese, and 250 Chinese as compared to 438,886 white residents. White persons represented 94.8 percent of the population, while the whole State of Illinois was represented as 86.6 percent white.

The 12th District is composed of larger families, on an average, than the rest of the State, having a median size of 3.71 persons compared to a median of 3.56 persons for the State as a whole.

Of the 127,000 civilian males 18 years of age and over in the District, 65,000 or more than 50 percent were veterans. The comparable figure for the State was 45 percent. Of this number, 10,328 District veterans had served during the Vietnam conflict, a percentage of 8.1 compared to Illinois as a whole, which had a figure of 6.6 percent. Also, the male population included veterans of the Korean conflict (10.3 percent); World War II (22.4 percent); and World War I, (2.4 percent).

In the matter of education, the 12th District showed a higher percentage of high school and college graduates than the State as a whole. According to the Census report, 35.5 percent of the District's residents had completed high school with 11 percent having completed four years or more of college.

The major industry of the 12th District is manufacturing, with wholesale and retail trade second, and professional and related services third.

Most families live in houses valued from $15,000 to $20,000 (26.4 percent) in contrast to 20 percent in the State as a whole. The second largest group (16,271 families or 21.1 percent) live in houses valued at $20,000 to $25,000 as compared to 17.5 percent for the whole State. The third largest number is 15,200 (19.7 percent) who live in dwellings valued at $25,000 to $35,000 compared to 19.0 percent for the State as a whole.

According to the Census report, the 12th District reflects fewer residents 18 years and over than in the rest of Illinois - 63.7 percent compared to 65.7 percent. Unlike the State as a whole, there are far more men than women in the 12th District: 239,110 males as compared to only 223,987 females. This is directly opposite to the ratio of males to females in other areas of Illinois -- and in the nation.

EDITORIAL

URGE MORATORIUM

On Thursday, September 7, Antioch Plan Commission members and their liaisons appeared to be on the verge of a landmark decision regarding village planning when they suddenly stopped short.

Before them was consideration of the Curnes property and the "Village Plan", but the only resolution to come out of the meeting was one to shift the date and time of future meetings.

While it is indeed encouraging to see the members aware of and discuss a comprehensive plan for village development, we feel they are diluting their effectiveness by allotting time to consideration of unwarranted details. Their most urgent charge is basic physical planning - what should go where.

This sort of approach, hopefully will produce a viable attractive future community. The intricate details of development can only be decided once the overall plan is completed. Until then any decision which would prove binding would indeed be premature.

While we praise the group on their diligence and community mindedness, we believe that as in any structure, the foundation must be laid before the pleasing, aesthetic details can be planned. It would indeed be folly to do otherwise.

We therefore strongly urge the Commission to consider a just limitation on future applications to ensure them the proper time to hammer out what has to be considered the most important village policy of the last decades - a comprehensive plan for overall development.

YOUNG AMERICAN GROUP
CITES CONGRESSMAN McCLOY

The Presidential Classroom for Young American has presented an outstanding service award to Congressman Robert McClory. The award presented pursuant to action of the organization's Board of Directors is in recognition of Congressman McClory's participation in Washington at a Presidential Classroom discussion regarding work of the United States House of Representatives. The bipartisan recognition followed the Presidential Classroom seminar held earlier this year which Congressman McClory attended and in which he took an active part.

The Presidential Classroom for Young Americans established in 1968 attracts qualified high school students who spend one year in Washington following their selection on a competitive basis. Some 1500 high school students took part in last year's program.

Among the 12th District students who attended the Presidential Classroom during the past year were: Marc E. Kellenberger, Elgin; Kristin Grayson, St. Charles; Thomas J. Miller, Elgin; Margaret Wiff, Elgin; Paul Kwiecinski, Gurnee; Helen T. Scibetta, Elgin; Andrea Cooney, Waukegan.

The citation to Congressman McClory is described as the organization's outstanding service award and it is presented "in grateful recognition of dedicated contribution to the 1972 secondary high school program and for inspiring in its students the challenge of an informed and responsible citizenry."

The Presidential Classroom deals directly with all functions of the Federal government including the executive and judicial branches. The organization's program consisting mainly of seminars is developed and coordinated by a highly qualified professional staff with its main offices in Washington D. C.

BANKS GEAR FOR GROWTH

Growth has at least begun to stalk one of its final prey in the guise of the Village of Antioch.

While planners scurry to and fro seeking answers to questions that should have been posed years ago, developers hungrily gobble up tracts of land to make a profit on the expected human influx.

However, growth and development did not catch all of us unaware. There are institutions that anticipated the growth trends and have acted accordingly.

Both of the major financial institutions in Antioch have or soon will complete construction on additions to their banking facilities. In order to cope with the expected flood tide of new depositors, the First National Bank has built an entirely new structure, while the State Bank has put on a major addition.

The presidents of both banks have estimated that the new additions will double the working space necessary to handle the inevitable dollar shift.

"This is a unique growth area," said William Brook, President of the State Bank.

According to LaVerne Woods, President of the First National: "When I came here in 1966, I could see the eventuality of a metropolitan setting between Milwaukee and Chicago and have tried to gear banking to adjust to it."

One of Woods first duties as president was to oversee the movement of the bank from their old building to a structure they recently vacated by the State Bank.

"I could tell then that we would need to expand even further in a few years," he said. The structure now being built along Lake Street has been the culmination of his far sightedness and proper "reading" of growth indicators.

The story of the State Bank and its president is no less extraordinary. With listed assets of 3.9 million dollars in 1952 the bank has grown to nearly 50 million in two short decades.

In addition to his obvious banking skills, Brook has also been hailed for his community activity and sense of civic duty. Many of his public and private acts of beneficence have been barred from general public knowledge, but the recipients know him as a good friend and neighbor.

"This just has to be a great community," he said.

However, all the growth of the banks did not come about by mere chance or luck, but by the shrewd anticipation of potential trends and the talent to act upon them, rather than the reverse.

"Planning can't be contained merely because you don't want to see growth," Brook explained. Even though the banks appear to be on top of current trends doesn't mean they aren't continuing to plan for a healthy future.

Woods noted that the new First National structure could probably expand from their current assets of 19 million dollars to 40 or 50 million, all in the present space provided.

In addition, he said the building had the capability of going another story in height and could also add indoor, elevated parking and an executive office tower.

Being so inevitably linked by their institutions to the growth of the village as a whole, both men naturally had opinions on current and future village planning.

Both men said they subscribed to the theory of eventual megalopolitan growth and were concerned that Antioch should plan best to deal with it.

"There is no doubt this area will expand," said Brook. "One of the big factors will be completion of the county-wide sewer system opening up new housing and industry."

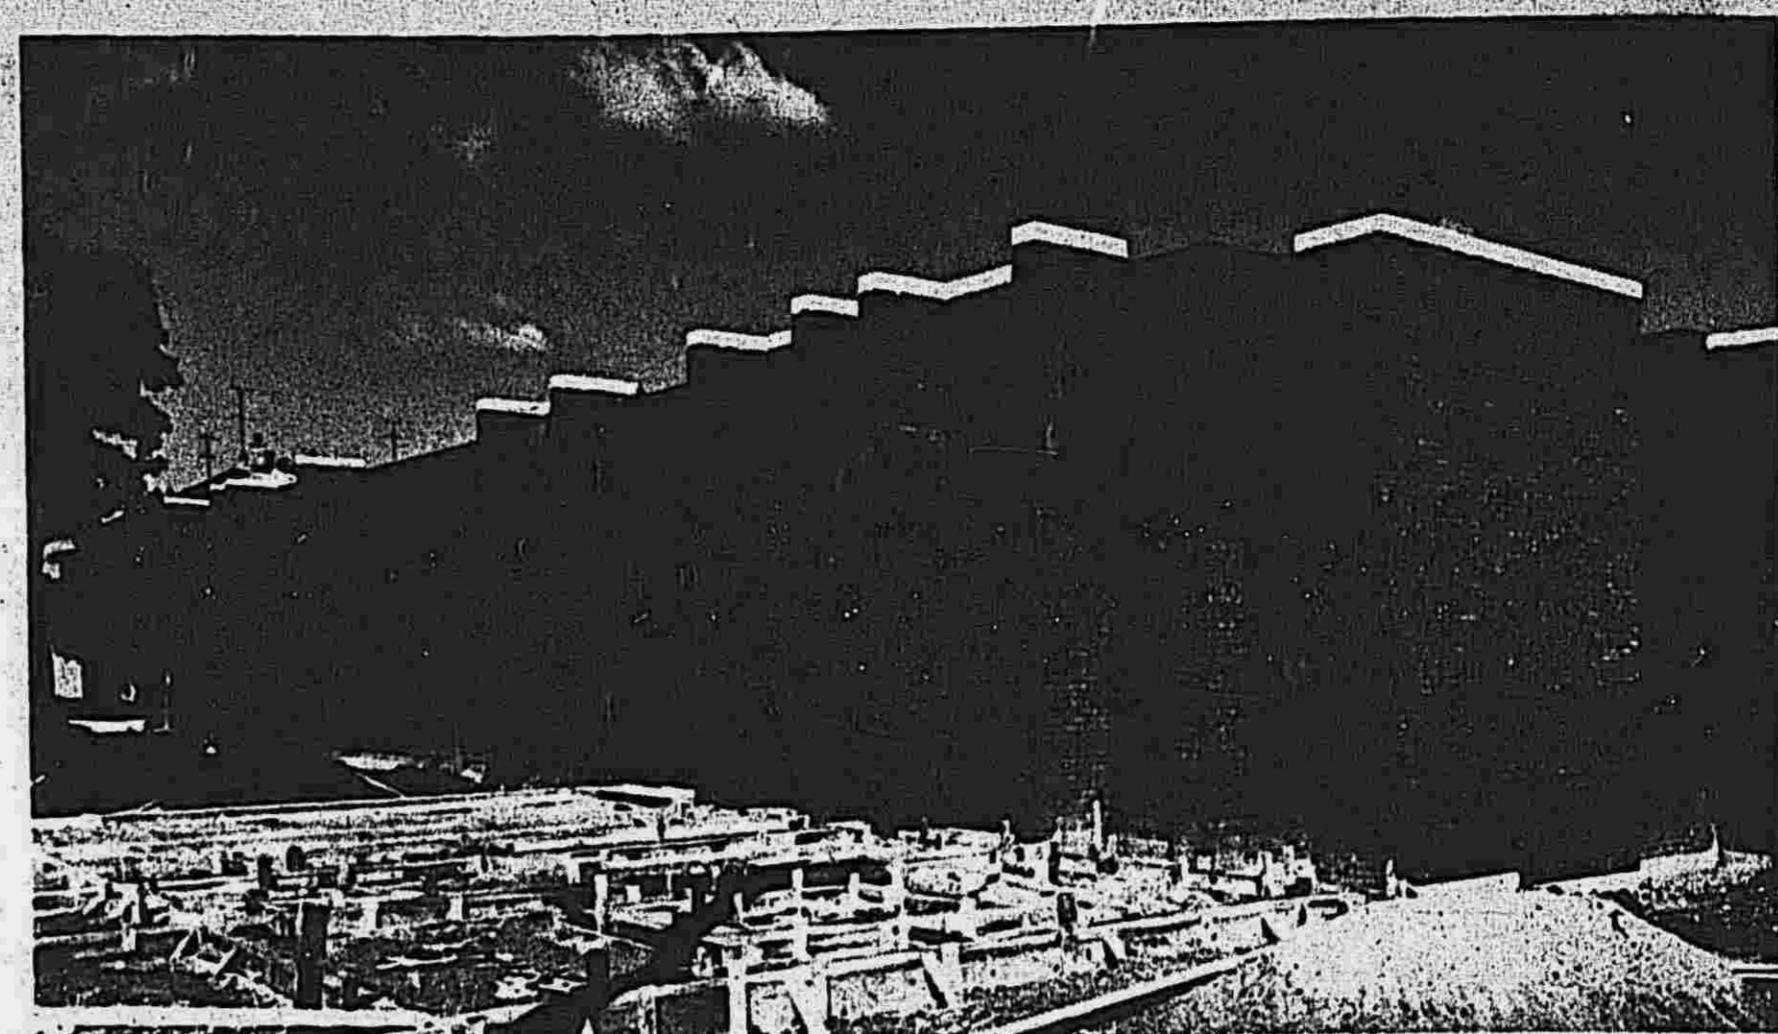

Brook also was quoted as saying the area could not survive with only "bedroom communities. We need industry too," he said.

Woods said substantially the same things and added that a mass transportation system was a sore need for proper growth.

Even with their fingers on the current pulse of development, neither of the men claimed infallibility in their assessments.

"When you're trying to look into a crystal ball you can't predict exactly what will happen except for a recognition of the general growth trend" said Brook.

"I think our faith in the future has been well founded."

However, we will immediately haul all the children we possibly can with the equipment we have.

6. In figuring the effect of the propositions on your taxes, use one of the following methods:

a. If you have your property tax statement, there is a column labeled "assessed valuation". Multiply this figure by .35 for Education, and by .03 for Transportation. This will give you the exact amount of the cost of the two (2) propositions.

b. If you do not have your property tax statement, try to determine the actual sale value of your property and divide that figure in half. This will give you the approximate assessed valuation of your property. Then multiply that figure by .35 and .03 to get the tax figure.

In general terms, a house that is actually worth $20,000. would be assessed somewhere around $10,000. The .35 x $10,000. would be a $35.00 increase in taxes for the Education Fund and .03 x $10,000 would represent a $3.00 increase in taxes for the transportation Fund.

7. You may vote by ABSENTEE BALLOT UP TO AND INCLUDING September 15 by coming to the Upper Grade School between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. on any school day.

OLD ENOUGH

Sometimes television is referred to as a new industry but it is actually 27 years old. It began in 1946 with 6 stations. It doubled the next year with 12 and has increased each year for a total of 904 stations this year. The UHF stations got started in 1953, the educational stations in 1954.

TV is one of the most successful growth stories in history. It has been one of the most revolutionary appliances to change our habits, too. It reminds me of my daughter who asked, "What did you look at when you listened to radio?"

We're growing at BLANCHETTE RADIO AND TV, too. By using the latest electronic gear for service and installation we service all kinds of electronic systems. A phone call to 395-6400 will assure you accurate and prompt service.

Three more weekends are left to take advantage of the town swimming pool. Hopefully the mosquitos will be a little less hungry.

Last Tuesday evening the "Hillandale gang" had another party. This time it was a surprise birthday party for Dick Endries.

Others celebrating birthdays this week are Betsy Lipscombe on the 13th, Alice Palaske on the 14th, Donna Marie Chase on the 15th, Vivian Bonner and Tom Runyard on the 16th, and Linda Kasik, Jerry Drije and Mark Roth on the 19th. Many happy returns of the day!!

Happy belated anniversary wishes go to Gayle and Dennis Velling on September 7. Also the ole anniversary bells will be ringing for Pat and Jim Harvey on the 16th of September.

Those happy, energetic bicyclist's who venture out every Sunday afternoon are sure expanding! Hear there were 28 in the group last week.

Acts of heroism sometimes go unnoticed but I'm sure two fishermen have many thanks to say to Scotty Lowe.

Dates to remember - Sept. 16, Antioch Grade School Referendum. September 18 - Little League Awards night - 7:30 at the high school. Rich Monday of the Chicago Cubs will be the guest speaker.

Get well wishes go to Bob Oddsen who is recuperating at St. Thereses Hospital after surgery. Also, Mary De Stefano is in Victory Hospital a bit longer. A card is always appreciated. The days are long and lonely.

On Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Garvin, were honored with a surprise house warming party. Highland Ave welcomes you!

Didn't hear any golf scores from our Lions Club members who journeyed to Madison, Wis. last Wednesday, but did you hear about "a big local restaurant owner" who was kicked out of a hamburger stand?? Who was the guilty guy cutting up??

The dreary, damp weather didn't deter the Village Green block picnic this past Sunday. This annual affair is just about the friendliest affair in town. Good food, fun games and good fellowship just about sums up the all day affair.

The Republican Steer Roast which was held at the Serbian Monastery this past Sunday was a huge success despite the uncomfortable weather. Many party notables were on hand for the rally.

A bandaged up young lady - Barbara Bailey, broke her left arm on Saturday and a finger on her right hand in school last week. This active youngster isn't a bit shook over the whole ordeal. Looks like Mom will be doing the chores for a while.

Mrs. Dan Radakovic just recently returned from a trip to Memphis Tenn. visit with son, Ted, daughter-in-law Mary and grand daughter, Emma who is 2 years old. Mrs. Radakovic was privileged to view the finished oil portrait of Andy Williams' wife, Claudene, and children that was done by her daughter-in-law before it was shipped to California.

Outcome of the Antioch Vikings Junior Football on Sunday, Sept. 10 was - light weights lost to Fox Lake 13-12. Heavy weights played to 0-0 scoreless dual. Good luck Vikings, in your future games.

The Fighting Sequoits will be opening their season this Saturday, Sept. 16. Sophomores start the action at 12 noon followed by the varsity. Good luck boys!!

See ya at the games.

GOVERNOR SIGNS

PIERCE SPECIAL EDUCATION PACKAGE

Governor Richard Ogilvie last week signed three Special Education bills introduced by State Representative Daniel M. Pierce (D-Highland Park). The Pierce special education package passed the Illinois legislature this past June during the regular 1972 session. The legislation will be effective October 1, 1972.

The Pierce bills mandate state tuition reimbursement for private schools for handicapped children under House Bill 2671 where the public schools do not provide the specific program needed by the handicapped child (H.B. 4156).

Another of the bills (H.B. 4366) provides additional state reimbursement for public school districts educating the more severely handicapped children where extraordinary costs are involved.

The third bill (H.B. 4328) would provide additional state reimbursement to local school districts that have 12 month programs for handicapped children.

The Pierce bills were supported by the Illinois Council for Handicapped Children, the State Superintendent of Public Instruction and the Illinois Council for Children with Learning Disabilities. The latter organization recently awarded Rep. Pierce its "outstanding legislator" award at its 1972 annual convention in Peoria.

"Illinois now will be capable of providing an education for every physically and mentally handicapped child in the state," declared Pierce upon learning that the Governor had signed his special education package.

WINTER TIPS

by: "Tork" Torkelson

Thousands of motorists who neglected to winterize their cars may be caught with their batteries down or stalled in the following weeks, according to "Tork".

However, car owners still have time to protect against cold weather headaches by using the Ford Customer Service winter check list.

"Tork" outlined potential trouble spots as being:

FUEL SYSTEM - Add a can of gas line anti-freeze and drive with a half tank or more of gasoline to avoid fuel line headaches.

TIRES - Inspect for tread wear and adjust air pressure for maximum control. Snow Tires require an increase in tire pressure.

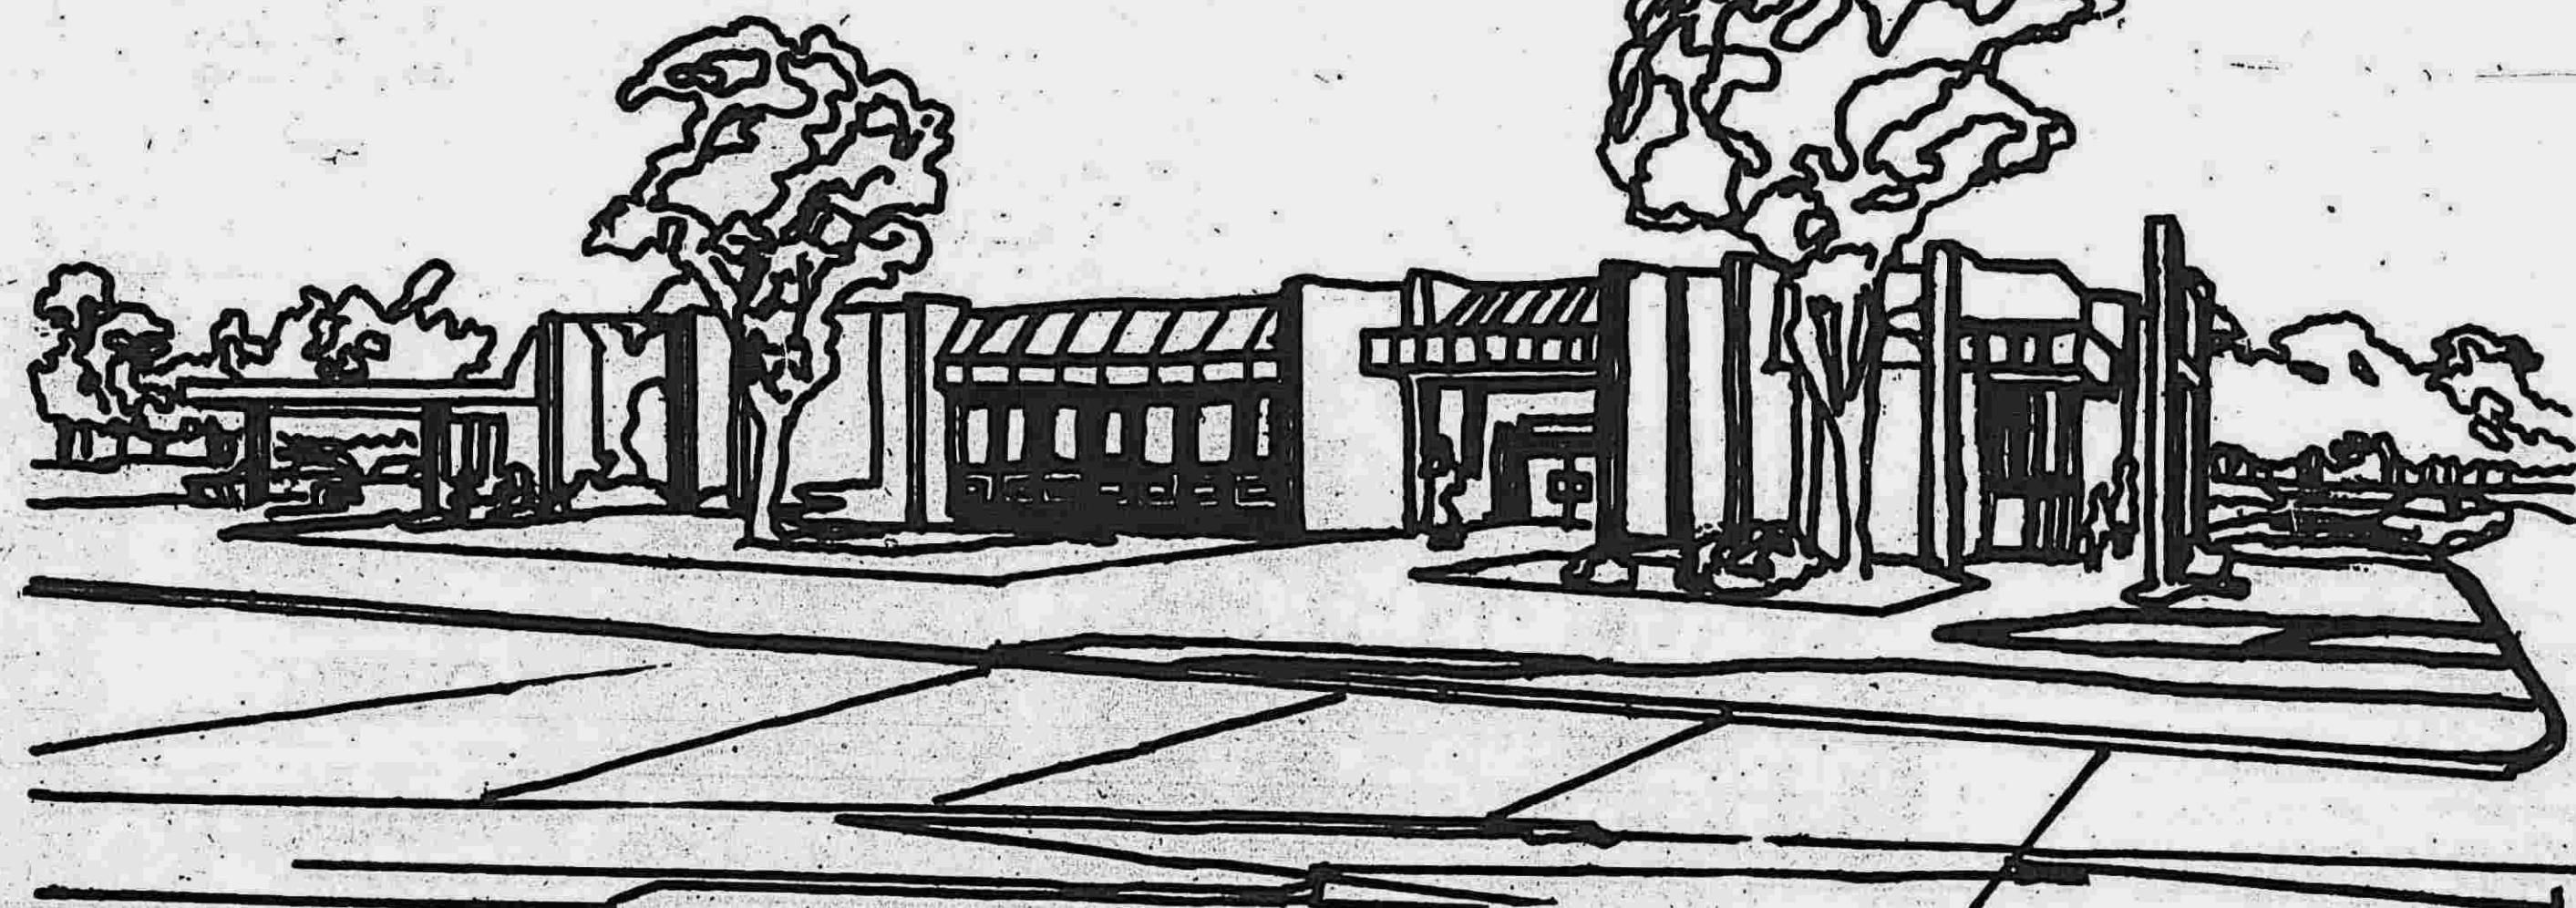

BATTERY - Check for corrosion. Wipe off pasty mold and scrape terminals to improve connections. Have the battery fluid level and charge checked by a dealership technician or service station attendant.

COOLING SYSTEM - Replace heater and radiator hoses that have cracked or weathered. Check anti-freeze strength at your dealership or local service station.

(Final four categories will appear in next week's column.)

MATTING PICTURES.....

Framing watercolors, pastels, and prints require glass and mats for protection. The mat can be thought of as a wide border surrounding the picture. It's single ply or double ply thickness creates a minute space between the glass and picture, for protection from damage caused by condensation on the glass or friction by rubbing against the glass. It also enhances the picture and therefore careful consideration should be given to the choice of white, gray or colored mat board, textured, smooth or cloth covered. Take the picture with you when you go to the art store to buy the mat.

An average picture will take a mat board approximately 3" larger than the picture at the top and sides and 3 1/2" to 4" along the bottom. Then from this mat board cut a window, which is slightly less in size than the picture so that the border overlaps the painting amply on all sides. Remember to allow for this overlapping when you paint the watercolors by allowing 1" extra on all sides as not being important to your composition.

For success in cutting the mat you need a very sharp razor-type knife, a wet-stone for keeping the blade sharp, an accurate rule for measuring, a T-square to keep your corners at 90 degrees and a metal straight-edge to guide your cuts. On the right side of the mat board measure the border and draw the window with a sharp thin pencil line. Cut into all the corners first, as this will prevent "over-cutting" beyond the window allowance. Place the metal straight edge along the border side of the pencil line, then if your knife slips off the pencil line it will cut into the window area, not the border. Do not exert extreme pressure, but cut with a firm, steady pull toward you, cutting through only a few layers of the mat board at a time. This results in a cleaner cut. Go over the cut several times until you feel you are through the entire thickness. You will see now that cutting from the right side of the mat board will allow the resulting ridge edge to be on the wrong side and rubbing lightly with sand paper will correct this. Now if cutting, a mat has proved too difficult - give up! Framing shops sell pre-cut mats or will cut them for you but they are more expensive than cutting your own.

To complete the matting, the picture can be affixed to the back of the window, but I prefer the following method. Hinge another piece of mat board to the top underside of the front mat with a long piece of gummed tape. Fasten the picture to the back mat in its proper position with gummed tape only at the two upper corners, to allow the picture to hang free for expansion and contraction as the humidity changes. Never glue it down tight, as this could cause wrinkles or tears in the picture. To the back of the window tape a sheet of acetate or transparent paper. This protects the picture or print from damage until it is framed under glass, then the acetate is removed. This method allows you to store a lot of pictures in a small space, such as a portfolio for easy viewing and selling at art fairs.

Happy Matting

4-H YEAR BEGINS

4-H is on the move with the new 4-H year having begun, September 1st. Roller skating, ice skating, bowling, and safety are four new projects added to the list of over 100 projects and activities available, according to Bill Messerschmidt, assistant Lake County Adviser in 4-H.

All youngsters between the ages of nine and nineteen years can join, regardless of race, creed, or national origin. Urban youngsters as well as farm youth will find projects to suit their need. A few examples include: beef, dairy, sheep, swine, photography, dogs, cats, aerospace, bicycles, arts and crafts, and many more.

Youngsters may join by calling the Cooperative Extension Service at 223-5844 or 223-4844 or by asking their parents to start their own club of five or more members. However there is an urgent need for new clubs to be organized, because many youngsters are already on a waiting list, according to Messerschmidt.

An orientation meeting for prospective new club leaders and new members will be held on Tuesday, September 26, at 7:30 p.m. in the Lake County Farm Bureau Auditorium. The auditorium is located at the fairgrounds on Rte 45, one block north of Rte 120, Grayslake.

The colorful and whimsical musical play, "The Frog Prince" will be presented by the Young People's Theatre at the PM & L Theatre on Sunday evenings for the next four weeks, September 17, 24 and October 1 and 8.

The musical is an adaptation of the beloved fairy-tale about the Prince who is turned into a frog and the beautiful princess who saves him. The Frog Prince will star Steve Albright and Wendy Stout as the two young people caught up in the spell of an evil Snake Witch. Others in the cast are Kim Skapich, Jim Scribner, Pat Bundy and Charles Brown.

GROVE SCHOOL IN NEED OF VOLUNTER VOLUNTEERS

The Grove School, Lake Forest, a school for exceptional children needs volunteers for the coming year. "Volunteers who work with Grove School children are the key to the unusual progress the children make", said Doris Wright, Director of Educational services and also coordinator of the volunteer activities at the school. According to Mrs. Wright, many children have been greatly helped by the program and have improved emotionally, educationally, and physically.

Each year the Grove School nominates a "volunteer of the year" to the State Street Council of the Welfare Council of Metropolitan Chicago. The past years' nominees were Mrs. Joseph Tadelman, a swimming volunteer, Deerfield, and Greg Green, a summer school and Saturday Recreation volunteer, Highland Park.

The teen-agers work at a Saturday Recreation Program under the direction of William Postl, former coach at Carl Schurz High School in Chicago, along with Youth Corps workers and men from the Radar School at Great Lakes Naval Training Center. They participate in motor activities for training the children, who have problems ranging from awkwardness, cerebral palsy, or inability to walk or crawl. The first Saturday Recreation Program for this year will be held on Saturday, September 16, 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. on the Grove School campus. Teen-agers or college students interested in volunteering should come at this time.

An Orientation Program for

Christian Science Churches

God's love and protection is brought out this week in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Matter" when he sayed Daniel from the den of lions in Daniel 6th.

"The notion that mind and matter commingle in the human illusion as to sin, sickness, and death must eventually submit to the Science of Mind, which denies this notion. God is Mind, and God is infinite; hence all is Mind" a citation to be read from Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker states.

1,219 REGISTER BY PHONE AT CLC

People, telephones, and a computer went to work recently for 1,219 Lake County residents who registered by phone at the College of Lake County for the 1972 fall semester.

All part-time students were invited to call 223-6661 and thus avoid appearing on campus until class time. More than 3,200 students of an expected enrollment of 5,000 were eligible for telephone registration. Those who did not take advantage of the procedure had to come to CLC to register and pay fees.

According to CLC Director of Admissions, Curtis Denny, registration by telephone is both convenient and efficient. "The part-time student may simply call CIC from the comfort of his easy chair. He tells us what he wants, and we do the rest," Denny said.

Four secretaries with extension lines answered the phones and transferred information from the student to the computer where records about him and his requested course or courses are stored.

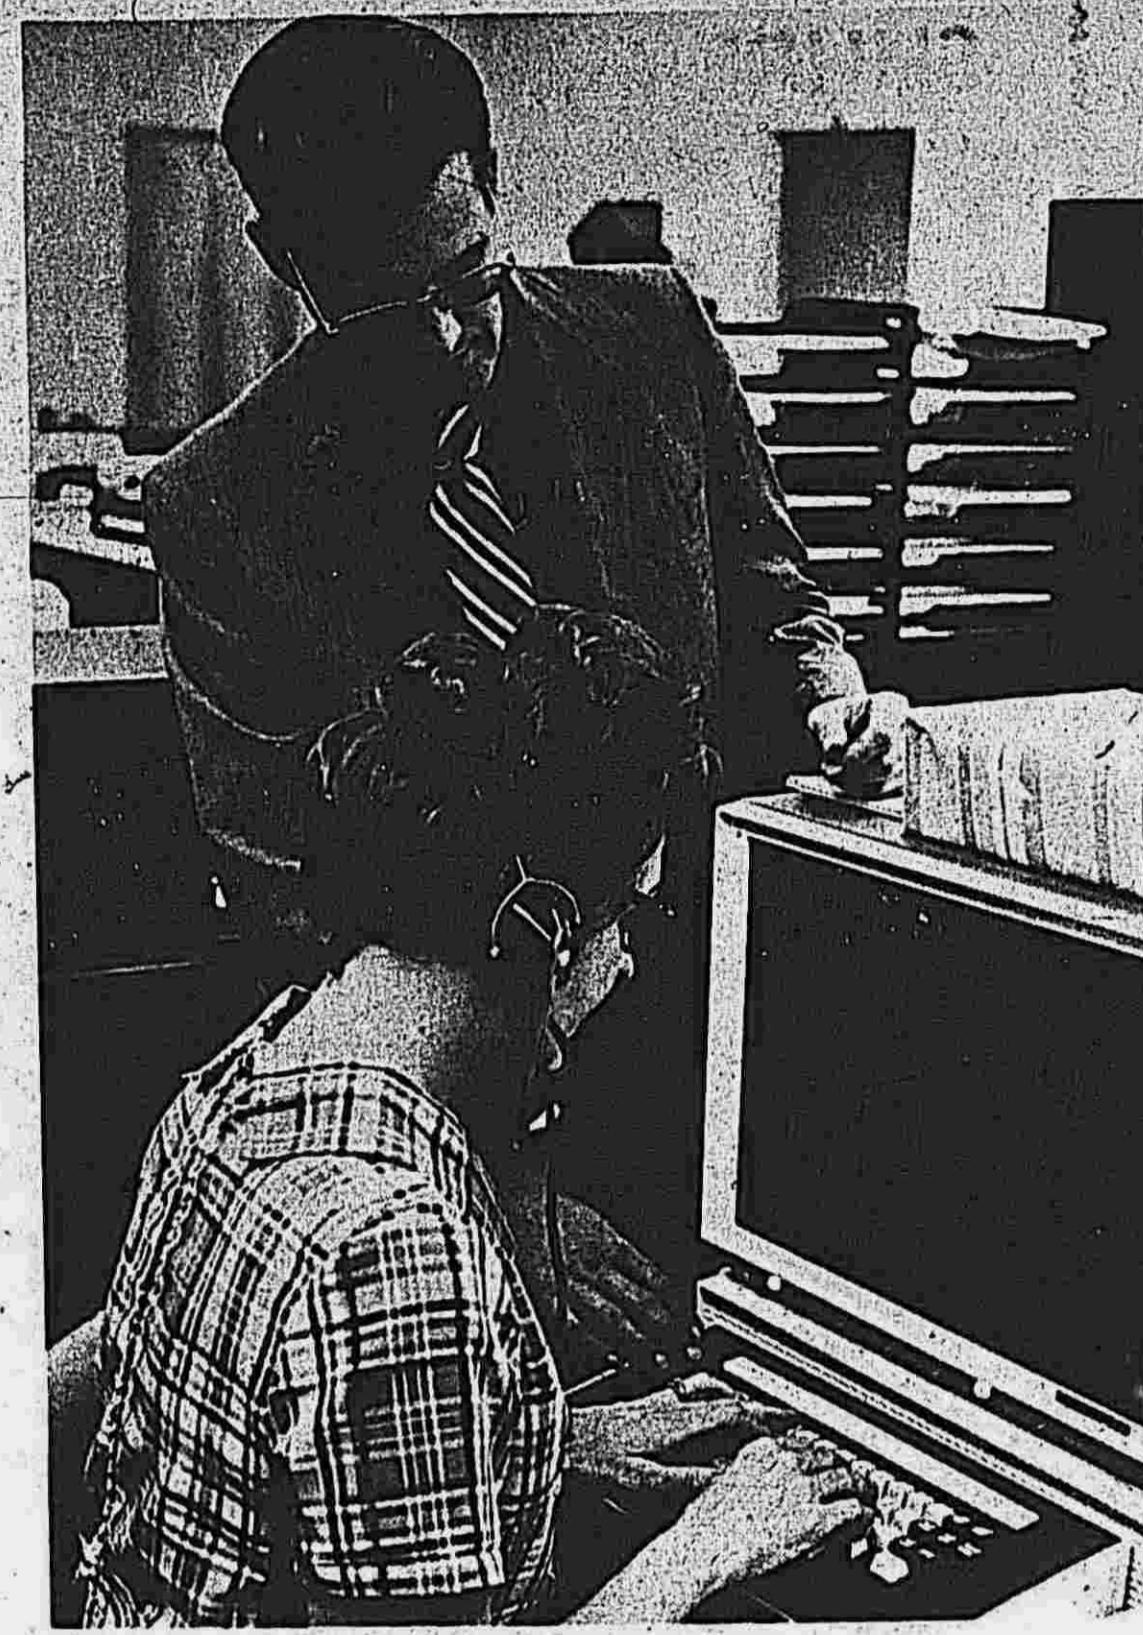

Each secretary sat facing video screens looked to the computer. When Reed Michael Ano, Antioch, called in and gave his social security number, the secretary typed that number into the computer. Information about the student then appeared on the screen.

Next, Reed gave the secretary the title of the course for which he was registering. This information was also fed into the computer. Course information then appeared on the screen confirming availability of space.

After verification of such routine data as address and year in school, the telephone registration was completed. Three days later, Reed received a fee statement in the mail. All he had to do next was show up for class and to pick up his books and parking sticker.

"If people could realize the tremendous time-savings involved in registration by telephone - about 2 minutes as compared to at least an hour with in-person registration, not counting commuter time - then I am certain that more would take advantage of this easy procedure," Denny added.

Enrollment for County of Lake College 1972 fall semester is 5,000. This is a 10 percent increase over 1 year ago when 4,554 students registered.

CLC Director of Admissions, Curtis Denny, watches Margaret Tripp enroll a student.

W.T. MURPHY HONORED

FOR 16 YEARS SERVICE

Veteran State Representative W. J. (Bill) Murphy, of Antioch, will be honored for 16 years of service in the Illinois General Assembly at the W. J. (Bill) Murphy Day Golf outing and dinner Friday, September 22, 1972.

Site of the funfest will be the Indian Valley Country Club, Rte 83 a half mile south of the intersection of Rtes. 83 and 45 south of Mundelein, according to William J. Zeigler, of Round Lake, general chairman for the affair.

Murphy was first elected to the General Assembly in 1954 and has been re-elected every two years since then except for the state-wide legislature balloting in 1964.

A key legislator noted for his conciliatory ability, Representative Murphy was Republican House Majority Leader and Chairman of the powerful Budgetary Commission during the 1963 session of the legislature.

During most of his tenure in the House of Representatives Murphy represented the north and northwest sections of the county but under the new legislative districting he is a candidate for election in the new 32nd District. His new District embraces all of Lake County west of the Lake Michigan shoreline townships except Cuba and most of Libertyville and then swings east to include Deerfield and West Deerfield Townships.

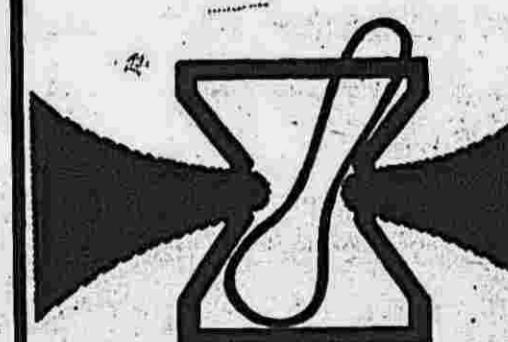

Commenting on the event Zeigler said, "Bill Murphy has avoided testimonials such as this in the past, but those of us in the northern and western parts of the county who have been fortunate enough to have him as our representative want the people in his new district to get to know him as well as we do."

Tee-off times for the golf portion of the program start at 8 a.m. and reservations for starting times and golf carts can be made by calling (312) 566-1313. Entertainment and awarding of prizes will follow the steak dinner.

Tickets are available from Zeigler or Don Hughes at William Zeigler & Son Inc., at Wilson Road, Round Lake, or Jerry Murphy at Murphy Real Estate, 418 Avlon Ave., Round Lake or at Indian Valley Country Club.

LAKE COUNTY LIFE UNDERWRITERS PRESENT CHECK TO HEART ASSOCIATION

The Lake County Life Underwriters recently presented a check in the amount of $270.80 to Mr. Austin Finnessy, Director of the Heart Association of Lake County. Presenting the check on behalf of the Life Underwriters were James Walsh, C.I.U., President of the Lake County Life Underwriters, (Mr. Walsh is manager of the Waukegan office of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company and lives on Lakeview Terrace, Antioch, Ill.); Larry Zupanic, Trustee of the Life Underwriters and co-Chairman of the Life Underwriters Fair Booth for 1972; and John Conarchy, Public Service Chairman of the Life Underwriters and co-chairman of the Fair Booth for 1972.

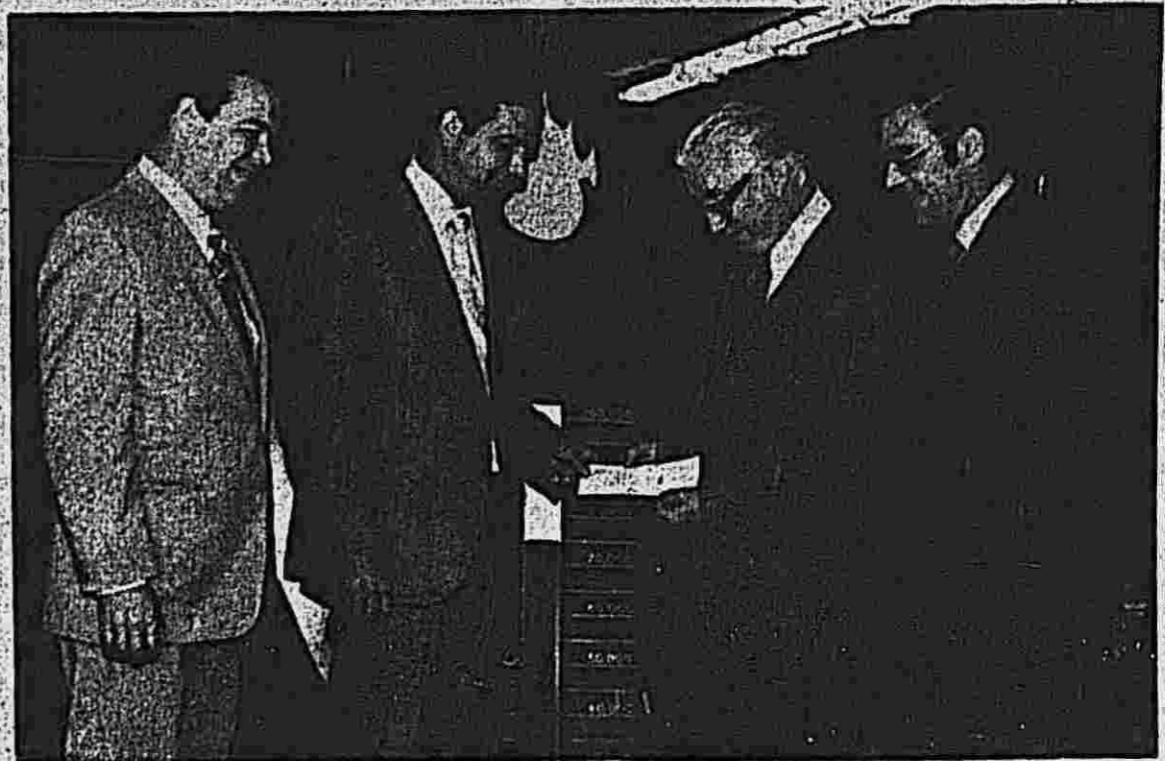

The check presented to Mr. Finnessy represents money collected by the Life Underwriters at their Public Service Fair Booth during the 1972 Lake County Fair. The Underwriters asked people at the Fair to "Check their weight for their Heart's sake" and if anyone was overweight, they were asked to make a donation of a penny a pound to the Heart Association of Lake County.

This is the second year the Underwriters have taken on this public service project and this year the check is better than twice the size of last year's check. The Underwriters noted that this year's success was due in large part to a new scale which weighed up to 1,000 pounds and was quite an eye-catcher at the Fair. The service of the scale was donated by the Koehler Scale Service of 2916 West Washington Street, Waukegan, to whom the Underwriters are deeply indebted.

James Walsh, said he is looking forward to the 1973 Fair and plans on a bigger effort on the part of the Underwriters in behalf of the Heart Association of Lake County.

In receiving the check on the part of the Heart Association, Mr. Finnessy pointed out what a great public service the Underwriters were giving the people of Lake County, not only in checking their weight for their heart's sake but in making a donation of this size which will

UNDERWRITERS TO MEET

The Lake County Life Underwriters' first monthly meeting of the 1972-73 year will be held at the Holiday Inn in Gurnee, Illinois, on Friday, September 15, 1972. The noon luncheon meeting will feature Robert S. Hoefer, trust officer of the American National Bank and Trust Company of Waukegan Illinois.

Mr. Hoefer's talk is entitled, "Small Trusts and Their Advantages to Your Clients". This informative program will show the insurance agent how trusts can work for the benefit of his clients.

Synthetic fabrics are washable, but not indestructible. Be gentle, with an electric dryer.

Today's miracle fabrics can take a lot. But remember, they're still what the name says. Fabrics.

That's when the gentleness of an electric dryer pays off. It's very, very gentle because it dries with a very gentle kind of heat. Radiant heat. That means it dries things the same nice way the sun does.

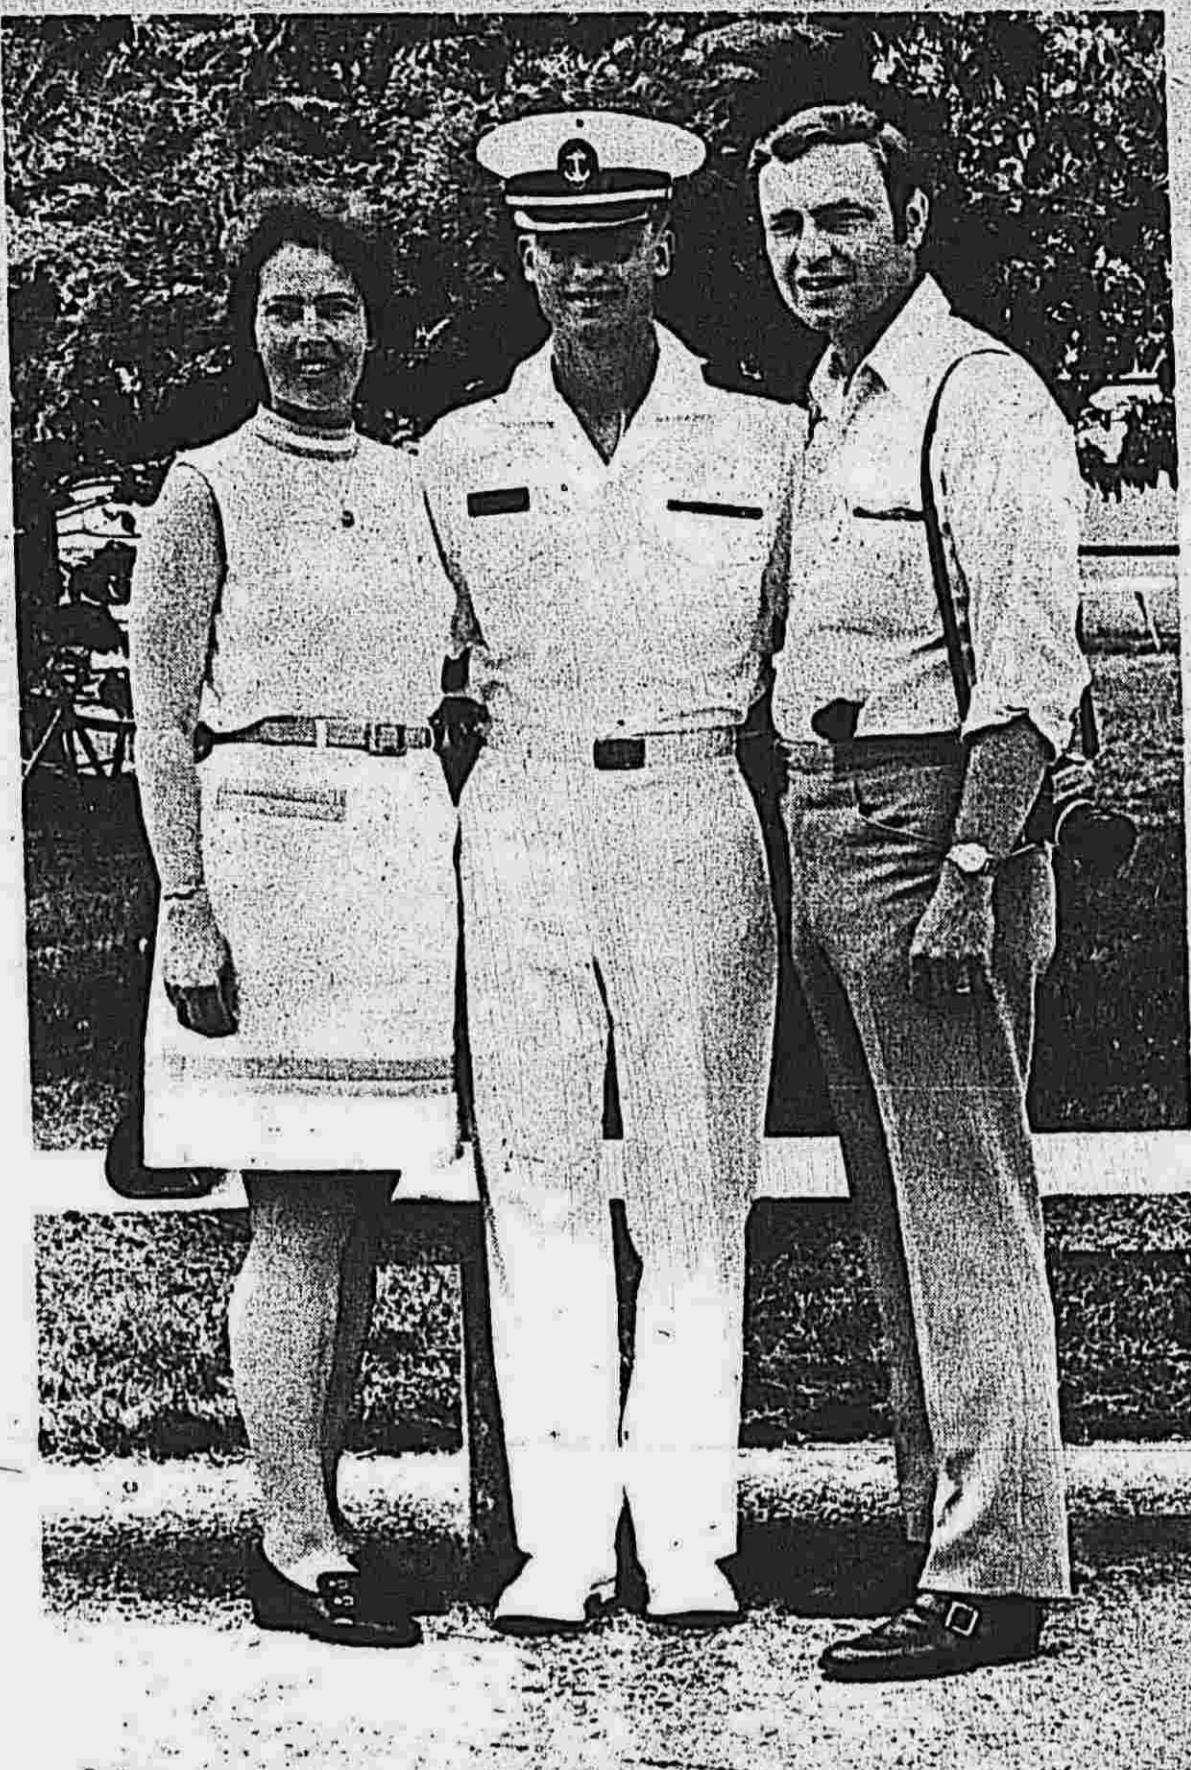

Many models even have an electronic sensor inside the dryer door to make sure things never over-dry. That's really important when it comes to permanent press.

An electric dryer is as gentle as a dryer can be on today's miracle fabrics. Matter of fact, it's gentle on non-miracle fabrics, too.

GRADE SCHOOL BOARD GAINS SUPPORT AT OAKLAND

On Monday, September 11 the rostrum at the Oakland Grade School was decorated with the same catchpenny bunting that typifies big-city ward meetings, but the mood was different.

District 34 parents had come to talk and discuss, not to meekly listen. A large crowd of nearly 150 kept up a fast-paced dialogue with board members that was marred by only one outbreak.

The group had been slated to meet, ostensibly to discuss the upcoming referendum, but most queries were directed toward the bussing issue in which the district is currently embroiled.

Things started out quietly enough as Meyer explained the district's indebtedness ($347,219 total in the three major funds). However, the already muggy atmosphere was charged when an unidentified man hurled charges at Meyer for his conduct of a previous school meeting.

After this row had been smoothed over, one woman asked the inevitable question: "What person in their right mind would make little children walk along Deep Lake Road (to school)?"

Meyer admitted that he would not. He said that the district was faced with a choice of two philosophies. "To continue to go deeper into deficit spending" or "to hold the line and you pay now!"

School Board President Gerald Vander Meer added that he and other members could have escaped the responsibility by retiring, but didn't. "It's not easy," he said, "but somebody had to do it."

Many in the crowd blamed the deficit on inflation; the rising cost of salaries; the lag in collection of taxes from new residents and the refusal of residents "to pay their share of their children's education."

Vander Meer looked at the crowd and asked, "Where do we go from here? We have no money."

Under questioning from the audience, Meyer said the increases, if passed, would not pay back the present indebtedness, but would prevent them from becoming larger.

He also said it was his personal opinion that schools must continue to "hold their heads above water until the total tax structure for education is changed."

However, he cautioned parents that domination of the school system by the State (through state income tax funds) would take away their last vestige of public control.

After receiving what appeared to be substantial support from the assembled parents, Meyer closed the meeting by forcing one of his louder critics to admit he had no children in the District 34 school system.

Mr. & Mrs. Veses Pooyatiap are now at home in Oak Park, Ill. following their wedding on September 2, in the Evangelical Free Church. Their reception was held at the American Legion Home in Antioch with 150 guests attending. Many local residents are still talking of the good time they had, the good food they enjoyed and the dancing to the 4 piece band led by George Olsar. Mrs. Pooyatiap, the former Kathy Irmen, who is the daughter of Rich and Dianna Irmen was attended by her sister Susan as maid-of-honor and sister Sherry as jr. bridesmaid. The newlyweds spent their honeymoon camping at the Wisconsin Dells.

Happy birthday to Donna Conklin and her son Jeff on Saturday September 9th and to Tim Conklin on Tuesday September 12th.

The Joseph Gutowski family spent the Labor Day weekend in Kankakee for the boat races in which Lou Portalski competed in SK77, the Grey hound. He ended the season by blowing the engine and being knocked out of the competition on the first day. The weekend was also hampered by an emergency trip to St. Mary's Hospital when Jimmy was stung by a bee and had a bad reaction. Jimmy kind of enjoyed the experience as he got to ride to the hospital in a police car and got the VIP treatment for a day.

every morning, along with her children, Dick and Lorna, only Carol is attending Grass Lake School this year as she has been employed as a teachers aid for the fifth grade.

Hal Koppa is recuperating at home now after spending 9 days in St. Therese hospital. Nancy Harland spent three days in bed last week as the old flu bug got the best of her. She really hated being home and having to miss school already.

Young David William Portalski, son of Mr. & Mrs. Bill Portalski and grandson of Lou Portalski, was christened at St.

Bede's church in Ingleside, Sunday afternoon. A party followed for David with his grandparents, aunts, uncles and cousins attending, at the Portalski home in Fox Lake.

Let me know the news.

With a Stern Eye

The pulse and the pace of the County Clerk's office has begun to quicken. As the countryside gets ready for Fall with its wildly hued landscape of maple leaves and election posters, those who toil in the vineyards of Voter Registration and Elections are beginning to purse their lips and roll their eyes as they survey the mountain of paper to be shoveled into bins before November 7th.

Prime among the priorities of our office has been the registration of every forgotten citizen in the County. We have set up our card tables at every Fair and Family Day, at PTAs and shopping plazas - and last week we even assaulted the Baptist churches of North Chicago, Waukegan and Zion.

The registrars in each of the Township and Village offices are calling in daily for more forms - more forms - "they're coming in droves out here!" And the completed forms are being hurried to our files, by hand, and by post - piles and piles of them. And each registration must be processed - checked to prevent duplication, separated and assigned to its home precinct binder, an IBM card must be punched, and the information must be added to the total list of voters kept with such care by the DATA Processing Department.

The three special 'Elections' girls are back at work, having been paroled to their families since the last election in April. Specifically they are hired to handle the applications for absentee ballots, making sure that those who apply are truly registered - and as soon as the ballots are available, to send out the appropriate ballot with dispatch. Because of their carefree insouciance, Marilyn, Fran and Margie are affectionately referred to as 'those lippy temporaries'. Their return to us underscores the impending frenzy not quite two months away. Presumably they will be handling better than 10,000 applications and absentee ballots in the next few weeks.

Although pretty well prepared - the supply boxes are filled and ready to go, the voting machines have been cleaned out and await only the insertion of the November ballot - there are always a few hectic, unforeseen emergencies. For instance, last week I received a call from the County Clerk in Winnebago County, Paul Gill.

"We were wondering over here what you in Lake County are planning to do about the Judicial Retention Ballot, Grace."

"I don't follow you, Paul. What's to do?"

"You know, Grace - the Election Code says you have to use a separate ballot, different color and so on, for voting on Judges' Retention. Are you going to use a separate green paper ballot, or do you plan an additional IBM card in green?"

There was a pause. I remembered an old political maxim: 'when in doubt, mumble.' I mumbled. And I temporized. And I stalled. Finally I suggested I'd let him know the next day as we were still sorting it out.

We certainly were. We had forgotten it. We embarked on a search of the statutes. It was true: Article 16-6.1 did say we had to have a second ballot for that question only. But the confusion of asking the voters to use their white ballot card for all the offices except Judicial Retention, and then asking them to remove it, and insert the green one for that question only, was too mind-boggling to contemplate. Surely more voters would get it wrong than right. And if we used a separate paper ballot, it meant that the Election Judges would have to stay in the polls to count them - anyway, I had been asserting to all who would listen, that everything would be on the machine from now on if humanly possible.

A further examination of the law indicated there was a contradictory passage in Article 24 A-6, which dealt with the use of Electronic Voting Devices. Provided the ballot page was the appropriate different color, "one ballot card may be used for recording all such ... public measures or propositions..."

Such contradictions are rifle in the Election Code, but where to turn for advice? To the State's Attorney, of course.

After writing up the entire ball of wax and sending it to the Third floor, we waited apprehensively for his opinion. After receiving our request, the S.A. went to the hospital with 'chest pains'. We felt guilty and chagrined.

But then the opinion came down - by return inter-office. One ballot would be sufficient for everything, said the SA from his hospital bed.

There was jubilation in the County Clerk's office and a new feeling of warmth for our ailing legal officer.....

CEREBRAL PALSY NAMED CHARITY OF THE YEAR

United Cerebral Palsy has again been named "Charity of the Year" (for 1973) by the American Contract Bridge League. This is the first time any charity has been named by the ACBL for two consecutive years.

Of the charity funds raised by ACBL games locally, 60 percent will go to support United Cerebral Palsy of Chicago's direct service programs. These programs include an educational training and treatment center for multi-handicapped children; seven summer day camps; two adult residential summer camps; an activity program for adults; and extensive counseling and transportation services.

The remaining funds will be allocated to the UCP Research and Educational Foundation whose research efforts are directed toward finding the causes and preventives of the brain damage which results in cerebral palsy. Approximately $150,000 is being allocated to UCP research this year. The ACBL's Present plan calls for increasing support to UCP to $300,000 in 1973 to provide funds for both the research program and local programs of service to those with the condition.

The League's charity funds are contributed by its 180,000 members and other bridge players. Much of the money comes from nationwide duplicate bridge tournaments and local games played especially for the charity cause.

WORKERS CARRY BURDEN OF INFLATION - PUCINSKI

Congressman Roman Pucinski, a member of the House Labor Committee, Monday, predicted that the Nixon Administration will attempt to rollback the wage freeze to 3.5 percent next spring.

Pucinski said he has learned the Treasury Dept. is gathering data to support a call for 3.5 percent wage increase limitation. He said the rollback from the present 5.5 percent will be aimed to hold down wage increases on major wage contracts coming up for renewal next year.

The Democratic nominee for U.S. Senator said the working men and women of America will thus be made the principal scapegoats in the war against inflation.

He said Labor Day, 1972, finds America's working people increasing their productivity and reducing the unit cost of production.

"But, despite this excellent record, our workers are forced to carry the full burden of the war on inflation with their salaries frozen, while corporate profits soar; executive salaries go uncontrolled; taxes continue to rise and the cost of living skyrockets."

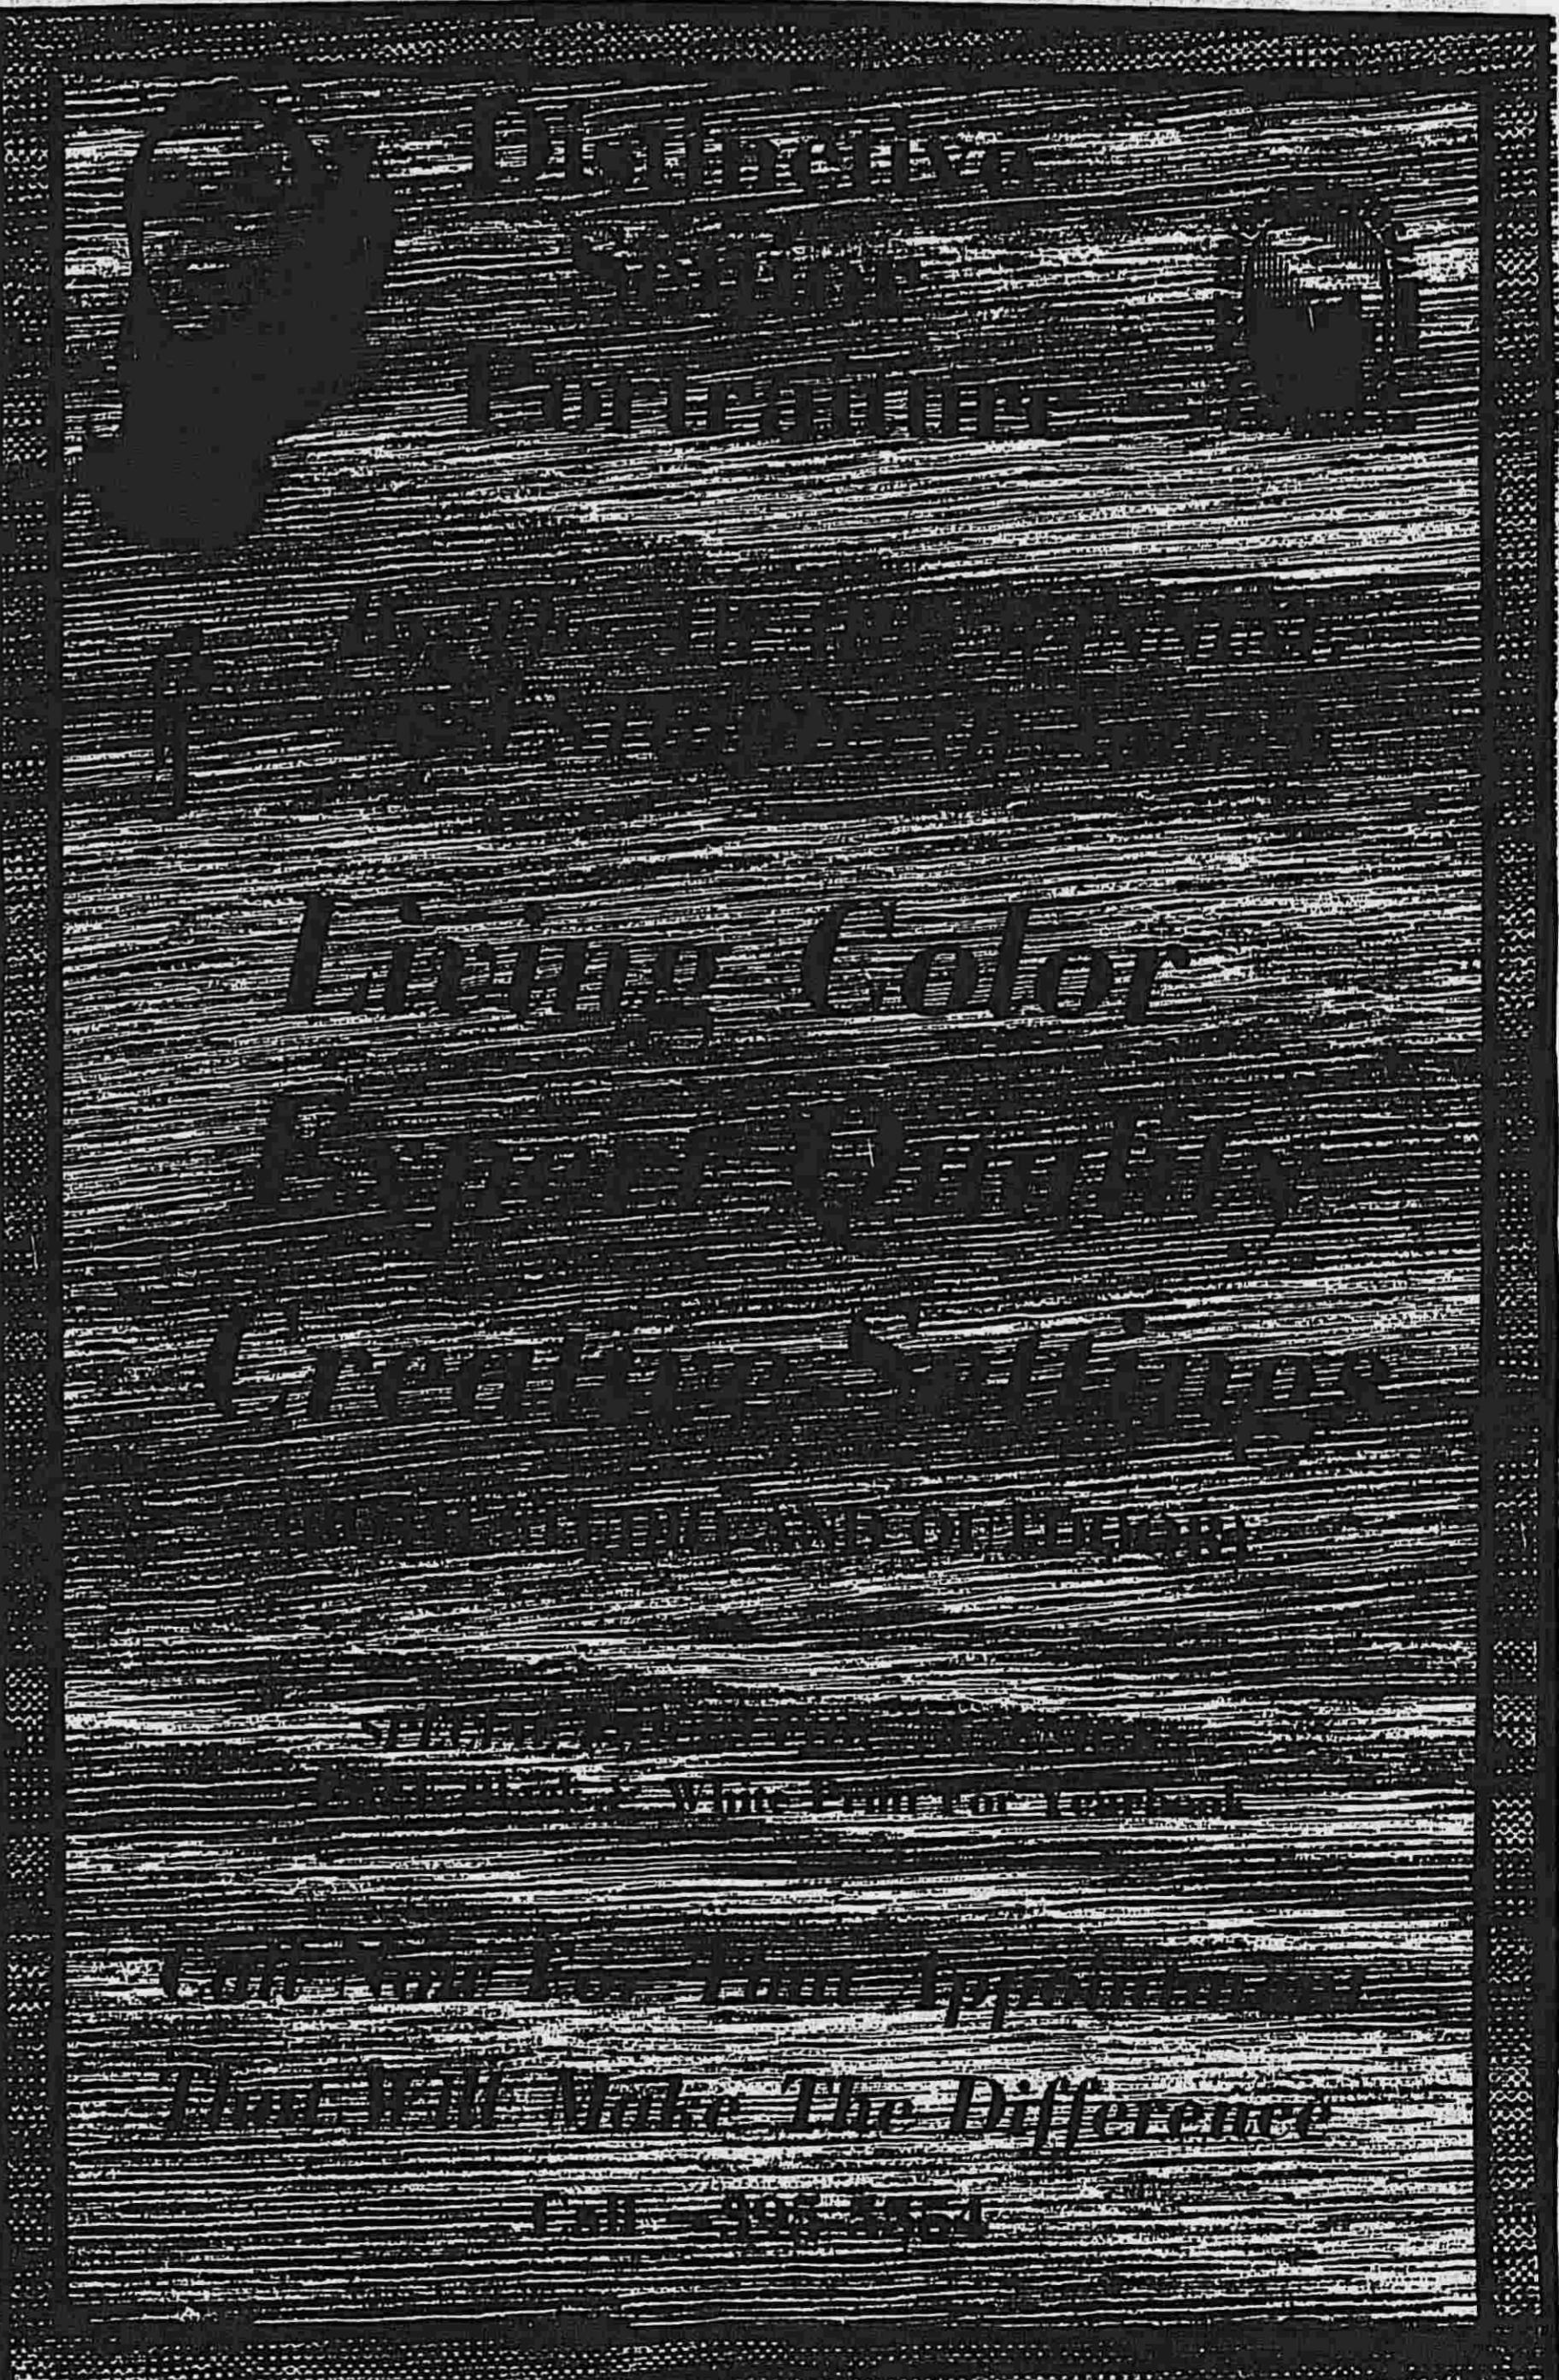

In a statement prepared for Labor Day, Pucinski added:

"This nation's workers deserve better. We should resolve on this Labor Day that the war on inflation must be waged by all-not just the working men and women whose salaries continue to be frozen while everything else keeps going up."

Pucinski said one reason for the continuing growth in corporate profits is "the unrewarded increase in productivity of the American worker."

He said the Labor Department reports show that average profits in the aerospace industry were up 24 percent in the first quarter of 1972 over 1971. Profit gains in other industries--appliances, automotive, building materials, farm and construction machinery, foods and trucking--ranged from 21 to 66 percent in the same period, Pucinski added.

COUNTY SHERIFF'S POLICE AWARDED

Elroy Anderson, president of the Antioch Township Republican Club announced today that the Prize Committee voted an award to the Lake County Sheriff's Police for "meritorious service in their war on the drug traffic".

In just 20 short months under Sheriff Clavey's administration they have confiscated some $5 million worth of narcotic drugs, and made scores of arrests leading to convictions for this heinous crime. Almost all of this was intended to be sold to school children. Parents can breathe a little easier for this.

The award will be presented at the Antioch Township Republican Club's 1972 Campaign Dinner and Golf Outing, Wednesday September 27th at the Antioch Country Club.

The ATRC ELLAphant Award will be given to William E. Brook, prominent Antioch banker and a staunch Republican leader. This is the first time the ELLA, ATRC's top award, will be given to a non office holder.

Frosting on the cake will be an address by Edmund S. Kucharski, Republican candidate for Secretary of State. Kucharski, who is currently Assistant Secretary of State, boasts a strong following in the area.

President Anderson has been hustling prizes for golfers and non golfers, and he promises to distribute more and better prizes than ever before. He also urges those persons who wish to use the golf carts to call the Antioch Country Club, 395-3000 as soon as possible and reserve theirs.

Golfing will begin at 9 a.m., with all day club house activities. Dinner will be served at 7 p.m., preceded by a social hour at 6 p.m.

TWO EDITORS PREDICT U.S. STAMP HISTORY WILL BE BEST SELLER

A new book about stamps and stamp collecting seems destined to become a best seller.

At least that is the opinion of philatelic editors from two Midwest newspapers who had an opportunity to preview "Stamps and Stories, the Exciting Saga of U.S. History Told In Stamps." The book was published by the U.S. Postal Service in collaboration with Scott Publishing Co., and goes on sale June 1 at all first class post offices in the Midwest.

Fred Korotkin of THE MINNEAPOLIS STAR, wrote in his column May 16, "I believe it (Stamps and Stories) is the most informative and best publication of its kind ever printed at the price. It is designed to appeal to long-time stamp collectors and to introduce stamps and stamp collecting to the non-collector as well."

Wayne Hassell, stamp editor for the St. Paul Pioneer Press, wrote on Sunday May 12, "In the Midwest we are fortunate in that the book (Stamps & Stories) will be sold at all first class post offices. In other regions, it will be sold only at selected offices."

Both Mr. Hassell and Mr. Korotkin wrote that "Stamps and Stories..." promises to be a

Helpful hints

There's a little place at the University of Chicago called the Nonesuch. Basically a coffee-and-sweet roll type of place, it has achieved local fame by catering to the unusual tastes of yogurt lovers. For example, Chinese yogurt with bean curd, "SALMON SUPREME" AND "Italian beef" yogurts are popular favorites (natural, unflavored yogurt base). The Nonesuch sells about 30 cups of yogurt daily and sometimes runs a weekly special on the distinctive dairy product.

The Nonesuch manager does admit, though, that conservative taste in yogurt keeps strawberry and raspberry flavored yogurt as the top sellers.

Put Two Fruits in Pie

Sometimes two fruits in a pie are better than one. Blueberries add very special goodness to apple pies. The half cup of blueberries in this Apple Blueberry pie adds subtle flavor goodness and gives the pie an appealing rosy-red color. Corn starch delicately thickens the sweet juices.

Apple Blueberry Pie

Double crust pastry for	5 medium size tart apples,
8-inch pie	pared, cut into thin
1 cup sugar	wedges
3 tablespoons corn starch	$\frac{1}{2}$ cup blueberries
$\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon salt	2 tablespoons margarine

Mix together sugar, corn starch and salt. Sprinkle bottom of pastry lined pie pan with $\frac{1}{3}$ of the corn starch mixture. Cover generously with about $\frac{1}{2}$ of the apples and blueberries. Sprinkle with second $\frac{1}{3}$ of corn starch mixture. Add remaining fruit and end by sprinkling last $\frac{1}{3}$ of corn starch mixture on fruit. Dot with margarine. Make several slits in top crust to permit escape of steam. Cover pie with top crust; seal and flute edge. Bake in a 375° F. (moderate) oven 1 hour or until crust is brown and apples are tender. Makes 1 (9-inch) pie.

IRA ADVISES FLOOD VICTIMS

TO DOCUMENT LOSSES NOW

Roger C. Beck, District Director of Internal Revenue Service for Northern Illinois, announced today, August 30, 1972, that taxpayers who suffered losses due to recent heavy torrential rains and flood conditions should begin as soon as possible to prepare a detailed list of property loss and damages so that they may be claimed as a deduction for this year's federal income tax return. Mr. Beck said that the most important thing for taxpayers to do now while the event is still fresh in mind is to start accumulating bills and receipts to verify original cost of items. Photographs of your property before and after will also be extremely helpful in verifying the amount of the loss. It is further suggested that appraisals be made now by an experienced appraiser who was familiar with your property before and after the casualty loss.

To assist taxpayers in determining their losses, the IRS Offices have available publication 547, tax information on "disasters, casualties and thefts". The subjects covered in this booklet are: How to figure the losses for tax purposes, how to take insurance proceeds into account, and the information you should report when you file your return. For a free copy of this publication, write to District Director, Internal Revenue Service, Post Office Box 1193, Chicago, Illinois 60690, or call for tax information at 641-1040.

AUTUMN HOUSECLEANING?

DON'T OVERLOOK

HOME MEDICINE CABINET !!

If you're involved in autumn housecleaning, don't overlook cleaning out the family medicine cabinet, advises the Illinois Pharmaceutical Association. Medicine not only can deteriorate with age, it can actually break down into harmful substances, according to Roger Cain, executive director of the pharmacists' professional association.

"At least once a year, a thorough inspection of the home medicine cabinet should be made," said Cain. "Old medication no longer being taken should not be saved - it should be discarded somewhere safe where children cannot get at it."

According to Cain, even non-prescription drugs such as aspirin can deteriorate with age and become harmful.

"It's advisable to make at least one good check of the medicine cabinet each year," Cain concluded. "All medication over a year old should be discarded. It's a clean-up that could save someone in the family from suffering serious harm."

RIFLES UNDEFEATED IN CENTRAL STATES LEAGUE

Several records were set by the Lake County Rifles as they became the only undefeated team in the Central States Football League by scoring a 59 to 14 win over the previously unbeaten West Allis Spartans Saturday.

The score is the highest ever totaled by the Rifles in a league game. Their attendance of 4,300 was the highest since the Rifles championship game of 1969.

A professional football record also may have been set with four touchdowns scored by defensive players, all on recovered fumbles.

The extremely excited and cheering crowd came to their feet when the game was only three minutes old as defensive linebacker Tony Bertuca picked up a fumble by Spartans quarterback Gary Bosak and raced 86 yards to score even though he stumbled and fell to the ground early in his run.

Bertuca in the second quarter recovered another fumble and in an unbelievable display of broken field running scored another touchdown, this time on a 30 yard run.

In the fourth period Bruce Hart raced some 60 yards after recovering a fumble; he walked into the end zone untouched during the entire play. Moments later, Don Rowden picked up a bouncing football and ran 89 yards to score with seven blockers protecting him.

The game was not as one sided as the score indicated because the Rifles offense gained 293 yards against 214 for West Allis and the Spartans often were threatening which is indicated by the long fumble recovery runs.

The Rifles defense put tremendous pressure on West Allis quarterbacks Bosak and Mike Junck, forcing the backs into mistakes which the Rifles alert defense turned into scores as they recovered 7 out of 9 fumbles.

Only seconds were left in the first quarter when Al McNeil of the Rifles kicked a 35 yard field goal. Steve Levias, the Rifles quarterback for the most of the evening, threw a 28 yard pass to Jim Brooks for a touchdown to put Lake County ahead 17 to 0 in the second quarter.

But then West Allis came back with two touchdowns on passes from Junck to Terry Fredenberg. The first touchdown pass play covered 70 yards as two Rifles defenders tried to intercept the pass and upon failing found themselves out of position to tackle Fredenberg who romped down the field. The second West Allis touchdown pass covered 11 yards.

Lake County led 27 to 14 at half time and managed only one touchdown in the third period as Ron Jurewicz, led by the blocking of Dennis Duncan, ran 7 yards around left end to score.

Ted Williams scored twice for the Rifles in the fourth period. One score came on a dazzling 13 yard run through the center of the West Allis line and the other on a 3 yard plunge on a handoff from quarterback John Dobbs.

Penalties of 95 yards stopped several drives by the Rifles during the game and resulted in one touchdown being called back.

This was the first start at quarterback for Levias who came to the Rifles from the Montreal team in the Canadian Football League three weeks ago. He responded with 8 complete passes in 23 attempts for 115 yards with only one interception. Several of his passes were dropped for no apparent reason.

Lake County travels to Racine for a game this coming Saturday and a victory by Racine would tie them for the lead in the Southern division of the league. The next home game is in two weeks when the powerful Madison Mustangs invade the Rifles Carmel Field in Mundelein.

GARRETT PULLS OUT LAST LAP WIN

George Garrett of Zion pulled out last-lap win over Ted Richter of Libertyville in Saturday night's late model sportsman feature at the Waukegan Speedway. It was Garrett's first feature of the year.

Dave Horst of Gurnee fell three laps behind the leader; however when he unlappped himself in the 18th lap many of the fans thought he was in the lead. Horst still was two laps down at the finish and was scored 11th.

Richter passed Skip Don of Waukegan in the 7th lap, but was never able to open much of a lead over Garrett and Don. The race was stopped in the 11th lap when Ernie Pollit of Zion hit the first turn wall after losing a wheel.

Garrett tried every trick in the book to pass Richter and finally he went to the outside with the white flag and managed to take the lead as the two raced down the backstretch.

Don finished in third spot followed by Roger Hacke of Waukegan and Bill Reupert of Wheeling.

Joe Horn of Zion had the night's fastest qualifying lap at 16.33 but he lost a transmission in the dash...replaced that only to overheat in the feature. He finished 6th. J.P. Gatti, Jr. who was looking for his fourth consecutive feature win, did not run the feature after two of his tires were ruled illegal before the time trials. Gatti did salvage a second place in the third heat on borrowed street tires.

There was a different winner in every event Saturday as Don Ellgass of Ingleside, Don Richter, Horst and Reupert scored in the other sportsman races while Phil Phillips of Antioch, Jack Hemings of North Chicago and Dexter Lewey of Waukegan won the hobby races.

Next Saturday night the ladies will run in their final powder puff race of the season. An all-girls football game played with stock cars follows on September 23 and a demolition derby closes the season as the added attraction on September 30.

Championship points continue through the month with George Dukas of Zion already assured the championship. Chuck Bostick of Waukegan and Richter are tied now for second with Joe Horn fourth and Ed Smith of Gurnee 5th.

CONGRESSMAN McCLORY DEPLORES MURDER OF ISRAELI ATHLETES

Congressman Robert McCloskey joined in expressing sorrow at the tragic murders of Israeli athletes at the Olympic Village in Munich.

Speaking on the floor of the House of Representatives in support of a House Resolution of Mourning and Sympathy, the 12th District Congressman declared:

"As I join in shocked disbelief of the events in Munich which brought death and terror at the scene of the XX Olympiad -- I pray that from this tragedy there may arise a spirit of renewed faith in mankind -- and an era of calm."

"The treachery evidenced in today's world which has reached a peak in the infamous murders of members of the Israeli Olympic team -- is revolting to the entire civilized world.

"Jews and Gentiles alike in our Nation mourn the death of those who have suffered from the guerrilla warfare waged in the Olympic village. We mourn for their families -- and we extend sympathy to all whose lives are darkened by this stark tragedy."

The House Resolution, sponsored by Representative Emanuel Cellar of New York, was adopted by a unanimous 346-0 vote -- and is similar to one adopted by the Senate.

In addition to the adoption of the Resolution, the House recessed for one hour out of respect to the memory of the fallen Olympic athletes.

MRS BROWN WALKS FOR LEUKEMIA

Mrs. Arthur Brown of Rt. 3 Box 827, Lawrence Drive, Venetian Village, Ill. is among 40,000 volunteers who would like to see leukemia "wiped-out" -- would like to see leukemia conquered through Research -- would like to know today's children and tomorrow's children will be free of a powerful pollutant that continues to threaten. They have answered the plea of the Leukemia Society of America, Inc., and are calling on neighbors and friends during the Annual door-to-door Campaign in support of the Chapter's three-pronged program of Research, Patient Aid and Public Education.

Today, leukemia is a critical health problem. It is a disease that takes the lives of more children than any other, kills more adults than children, and will go on taking lives until research finds a cure.

The effectiveness of treatment, length of survival and future outlook are far more encouraging today than even a year ago. Progress is being made and lives are being lengthened. This sobering fact, however, remains: as estimated by the National Institutes of Health, leukemia and allied disorders -- lymphomas and Hodgkin's disease will claim 33,000 lives annually.

There are many avenues to be explored, many ways to help those who need care now. The pieces are beginning to fit.

Funds raised from the door-to-door drive will bring the day closer when all the pieces fall into place and those who support the drive will have played a vital role in solving this puzzle.

Informative pamphlets are available at the Chapter office at 55 East Washington St., Chicago.

BOYS CAN JOIN SCOUTS DURING TOUCHDOWN ROUNDUP

Fun and adventure attract boys to Scouting, and boys who want to be Scouts will find the opportunities in their own neighborhoods during the 1972 TOUCHDOWN ROUNDUP.

The fall membership drive by 500 Scout units in the Northeast Illinois Council, Boy Scouts of America, will open the door to Scouting for some 5,000 new Scouts, according to Johnny Morris, honorary Roundup Chairman.

"We know that boys want to be Scouts, and we know the educational values of Scouting for boys", Morris said in a special message. "as part of our Council's BoyPower '76 plan to expand Scouting, we want to make Scout units available wherever boys live".

In addition, scout troops throughout the Council will participate in the Korner Kampout program September 30 - October 1, according to Judd Davis, 401 Maple Street, Wilmette, Council Chairman.

"Individual troops", Davis said, "will set up a one day display or overnight camp in their own community. This would include the church lawn, school yard, park, corner lot. Boys and their parents will be invited to take part in Kampout activities and to join the Scouting team".

Other men giving leadership to the Korner Kampout and school night programs are Del Sherwood, Box 15, Lake Villa; and Dr. W.C. Petty, 1038 Spafford, Antioch.

Advance information about where Scout units are located is available to boys and their parents now at either of Scout Service Centers: 724 Vernon Avenue, Glencoe, 835-4124, or 533 Grand Avenue, Waukegan, 662-8424.

TAKE MY SON BY THE HAND

My son starts to school tomorrow. It's all going to be strange and new to him for awhile, and I wish you would sort of treat him gently.

You see, up to now, he's been king of the roost.

He's been boss of the backyard. I have always been around to repair his wounds, and I've always been handy to soothe his feelings.

But now... things are going to be different.

This morning he is going to walk down the front steps, wave his hand, and start on his great adventure that will include wars and tragedy and sorrow.

To live his life in the world he has to live in, will require faith and love and courage.

So, teacher, I wish you would sort of take him by his young hand and teach him the things he will have to know.

Teach him... but gently - if you can.

He will have to learn, I know, that all men are not just, that all men are not true.

Teach him that for every scoundrel, there is a hero, that for every crooked politician there is a dedicated leader. Teach him that for every enemy there is a friend.

Let him learn early that the bullies are the easiest people to lick.

Teach him the wonders of books. Give him quiet time to ponder the eternal mystery of birds in the sky, bees in the sun, and flowers on a green hill.

Teach him that it is far more honorable to fail than to cheat. Teach him to have faith in his own ideas, even if everyone tells him they are wrong.

Try to give my son the strength not to follow the crowd when everyone else is getting on the bandwagon. Teach him to listen to all men, but to filter all he hears on a screen of truth and to take only the good that comes through.

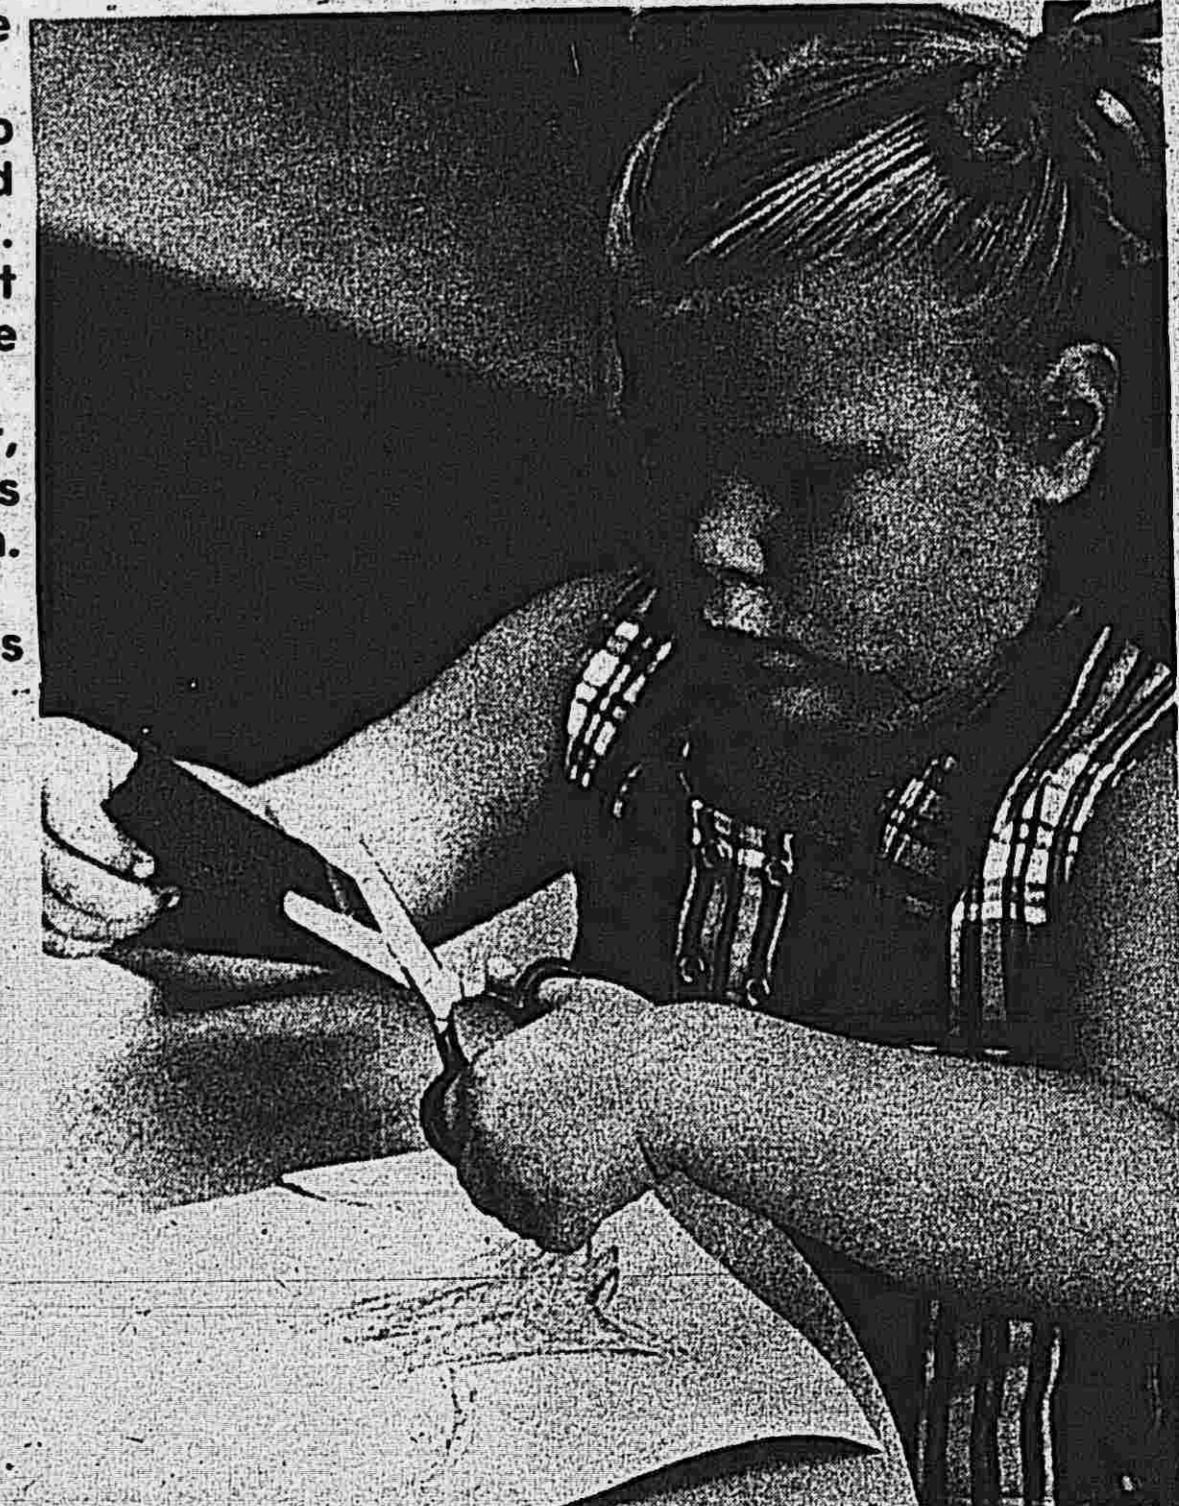

Teach him to sell his brawn and brains to the highest bidder, but never to put a price tag on his heart and soul.

Teach him to close his ears to a howling mob, and to stand and fight if he thinks he's right.

Teach him gently, but don't coddle him, because only the test of fire makes fine steel.

This is a big order, teacher, but see what you can do. He's such a nice little fellow, my son.
